Caulfield Engineering, LLC ("Caulfield Engineering" or "we" or "us" or "our") maintains its web site for informational purposes only. The information contained on this web site is not engineering advice. This information is not intended to create, and receipt does not constitute, client relationship. Readers should consult with a lawyer before acting in reliance on any such information. Caulfield Engineering is obligated to maintain the confidentiality of communications with our existing clients. No similar obligation exists as to communications with others. Caulfield Engineering will not be prevented from representing parties adverse to you by virtue of your visit to this web site. The sending or receipt of a message to Caulfield Engineering, even if encrypted, does not create a confidential engineer-client relationship. Do not send us confidential information until you speak with one of our engineers and get prior authorization to send that information to us. Caulfield Engineering seeks to provide accurate and timely information. However, there may be inadvertent technical or factual inaccuracies and typographical errors, for which we apologize. We reserve the right to make changes and corrections at any time, without notice. Decisions based on information contained in Caulfield Engineering's site are the sole responsibility of the reader, and in exchange for using Caulfield Engineering's site, the reader agrees to hold Caulfield Engineering, our engineers and affiliates harmless against any claims for damages arising from any decisions that the reader makes based on such information. Except as otherwise noted, the text and graphics provided on Caulfield Engineering's site are copyrighted by Caulfield Engineering. Caulfield Engineering invites readers to make a single copy of information published on our site for their personal, noncommercial use or use with the organization that employs them. Visitors to Caulfield Engineering's site assume all responsibility and risk for the use of Caulfield Engineering's site. Caulfield Engineering, its engineers and affiliates disclaim all warranties, representations and endorsements, express or implied, with regard to information accessed from or via Caulfield Engineering's site, including but not limited to all express and implied warranties, the warranty of title, merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, non-infringement, and/or freedom from computer virus. Caulfield Engineering does not assume any liability or responsibility for the accuracy, completeness or usefulness of the information disclosed at or accessed through its site. In no event shall Caulfield Engineering, our engineers or affiliates be liable for any direct, special, indirect, or consequential damages, or any other damages of whatsoever kind resulting from whatever cause, including but not limited to loss of use, loss of profits, or loss of data, whether in an action under theories of contract, negligence, or strict liability, or otherwise, arising out of or any way in connection with the use or performance of the information on, or accessed through, our site. Some jurisdictions do not allow the exclusion of implied warranties in certain situations, so the foregoing disclaimer may not apply to you, either in whole or in part. Reference in Caulfield Engineering's site to any products, services, processes, hypertext links, or other information, by trade name, trade mark, manufacturer, supplier, or otherwise does not necessarily constitute or imply Caulfield Engineering's endorsement, sponsorship or recommendation. The outcome of each case and representation may differ depending on the applicable facts and law of each individual case. No two cases are identical nor can the same results be expected.
